This Standard Work on the Chinese Language, constructed on the basis of Kaang's Imperial Dictionary, contains nearly all Chinese characters in practical use, and while alphabetically arranged according to the sounds of the Chinese dialect of China, the Cantonese, it gives also the Mandarin pronunciation of all characters explained in the book, so that its usefulness is by no means confined to the Cantonese Dialect, but the work is a practically complete Thesaurus of the whole Written Language of China, ancient and modern, as used all over the Empire, whilst its introductory chapters serve the purposes of a philological guide to the student.

A Supplement, arranged for being bound and used by itself, and containing a List of the Radicals, an Index, and a List of Surnames, is published and sold separately.

The following Testimonial has been received from F. W. CROSS, Esq., Manager, HONGKONG and CHINA GAS COMPANY, LIMITED:

"I have herewith much pleasure in testifying to the quality of the FIRE BRICKS as made by you at your new works."

"In appearance the Brick is light and soft as compared with the ordinary Fire Brick used in the Colony, but this I may say is characteristic of the best English Fire Brick."

"After a very severe test I have no hesitation in saying that this Brick is admirably suited to resist any degree of heat that it may be likely to undergo and for all purposes that Fire Bricks are used for."

"I am now about to build them into one of my Furnaces and have no doubt of their being able to stand as well as the English Fire Bricks I have been using."

THE CHINA REVIEW.

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY,
TENTH YEAR.

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese affairs, has reached its fourteenth volume. The Review discusses these topics which are of interest in the minds of students of the "Far East" and about which every intelligent person concerned with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original papers on the Arts, Sciences, History, Geography, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new department has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive Notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally useful.

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavors are made to present a candid and concise record of literature on China, etc., and to give citizenship embracing abstracts of the most valuable works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to "Editor, China Review, care of China Mail Office."

The Notes and Queries are all contained in and form an important means of obtaining and diffusing among students knowledge on obscure points.

The Correspondence column also affords further and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various topics.

Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are required. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, the Imperial Customs, and other Services, and also by the Missionary bodies amongst whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is assiduously cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Drs. Chalmers, Eliot, Friesen, and others, and the Review is also by the Missionary bodies amongst
whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship
is assiduously cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Drs. Chalmers, Eliot, Friesen, and others, and the Review

is assiduously cultivated.

The Subscription is fixed at $5.00 per annum, postage included—payable in advance.

Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to. Address, "Manager, China Mail Office."

CHINA REVIEW.

All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review. "Northern Christian Advocate" (U.S.).

"The China Review" is a most excellent table of contents. "Christian Empire."

"The Publication always contains subjects of interest to students in the Far East and the present issue will hold favorable if not advantageous comparison, with preceding numbers." "Christian Empire."

"This number contains several articles of interest and value." "North-China Herald."

"The China Review for September-October fully maintains the high standard of excellence which has been its constant feature, and altogether forms a very interesting and readable number. Memorabilia will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Friesen, on the Amount of Population (China and Shanghai) of Peking, according to the observations made at the Imperial Observatory at Peking, from 1841 to 1880. "Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa," by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting particulars, although much of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most generous and appreciative review of "The Divine Classic of Nan-Hua," and the Notes and Queries are as usual very interesting." "North-China Daily News."

A substantial and reliable Review which all students of China and the Chinese would do well to patronize. "Chrysanthemum."

"The November-December number of the China Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr. Herbert A. Giles on "The New Testament in Chinese" treats of a question that must necessarily be of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries. Mr. E. E. Parker's "Short Journeys in Szechuen" are continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr. Y. H. Balfour contributes a paper of some length entitled "The Enaper of Chang, founder of the Chinese Empire," which will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history.

A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which on "On Chinese Opium," written by Mr.
Parker, might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete the number. "H.K. Daily Press."

Traveller's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review:— The present publication, judging by the number and before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, some what similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important facts of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable, and contributions of such interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authorities.

Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are included by Mr. E. E. Parker, and also of style, and an account of the career of the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. O. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by the literary grace. Brief abstracts of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predecessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure its continuance.
